ABOUT GREGG

Gregg Pearson, born in February 1967, will always be remembered as a kindred soul who cherished his relationships with his friends, his family and The Lord. Although Gregg had a healthy and active childhood, he was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 1992. For the next 11 years, Gregg admirably fought cancer with dignity and strength only God can provide. However, our loving God called Gregg home on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2003. His friends and family remain committed to "honor Gregg by helping others".

Gregg Pearson, 1967-2003

WHY YOU SHOULD SUPPORT THE GP INVITATIONAL

As a four-time survivor of cancer, Carrie Simpson started her battle against Hodgkin's Lymphoma in 1999 and, later, Sarcoma in 2007, 2008 and 2011. She has had to endure chemo and radiation therapy, 5 major surgeries, and 4 reconstructive surgeries which claimed 3 ribs and part of her spine. Despite all her challenges, Carrie still has a burning desire to help others with the same experience so she created CancerBiographies.com – which is actually how GPF came to know Carrie! Though she draws inspiration from her friends and family, her strong faith and unbreakable spirit had led so many others to instead be inspired by Carrie – including her husband and two daughters!
